

CRU NATION CHRONICLE

Game day edition—April 24th, 2008

CRUVILLE, Tx—

BULLDOZER! The CRU make it four straight against the Spartans. Strong pitching, solid defense, and an offensive attack that could beat the Red Sox. The Blue Machine started rolling early and never let up. “THAT’S HOW WE DO IT!”

Before the game, the winningest coach in St. Andrew’s softball history, Coach Tucker, stopped by for a pre-game pep-talk. “This is a bat. You hold it in your hands. See the ball. Hit the ball. Be the ball”. He shared his coaching secret with the CRU before he left, “Score more runs than the other team and I guarantee you will win”.

CRU WINS! CRU WINS!

RJ Axe reacts to the final out of the CRU victory, “I feel like I just met Taylor Swift!” RJ beamed. “You think I could ask her to the prom?”

“This is a huge victory for the whole school. I take all the credit for the win. Since I have been working in the admissions office the talent on the baseball team has gone through the roof”, smiled Coach Garcia. “Lucy and I made a deal that if we beat St. Stephen’s four times in a row, I could implement a dress code. I want St. Andrew’s to get back to it’s roots. Kilts and knee high socks socks”.
